

H&M Plating Co., Inc. (Critical Infrastructure)

25th March 2020

Dear Valued Customer/Supplier:

H&M Plating Co., Inc. is considered a Critical Infrastructure Industry per the US Department of Homeland Security (Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency-CISA) and US Centers for Disease Control Coronavirus Guidelines as a member of the Critical Manufacturing Sector. As such, we wish assure you that H&M is focused on the health and safety of not only our employees, but our community of customers, suppliers as well.

H&M has taken precautionary measures based on risk assessment data to mitigate and prevent exposure amongst the environment we work in. Among many other precautions taken, social distancing, good hygiene practices, travel restrictions, disinfecting practices, and housekeeping have all been implemented to keep our facilities safely in operation. We are closely monitoring situation locally and abroad and will continue introducing further precautionary measures as needed and prescribed.

During this critical time, it is imperative that our supporting and affiliated partners and business associates take a committed approach to fighting the spread of this virus. Therefore, for the safety and well being of our working community, we ask that you too implement safeguards and practices to prevent exposures and keep our facilities safely in operation.

H&M will continue to work with government authorities to make sure they support our mission of remaining open so that we can provide the solutions our Critical Infrastructure Sector requires. We are committed to continue operating in conjunction with the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA) guidelines as the Nation's risk advisor, to defend against today's threats and collaborating to build more secure and resilient infrastructure for the future. We value your business and again remain ready to serve all your needs.

Sincerely,

Manuel Medina, SSH
